THE MR. LEATHER OTTAWA ORGANIZATION, EXECUTIVE PRODUCER DONATES PROCEEDS TO JER'S VISION

OTTAWA – The Mr. Leather Organization provided a $1,000.00 cheque to Jeremy Dias in support of Jer's Vision: Canada's Youth Diversity Initiative, the organization ear-marked by Mr. Leather Ottawa 2005, Shawn Carroll. Jer's Vision is the organization founded by Jeremy Dias to support youth who are addressing issues of discrimination in their schools and communities.

The 14th annual contest weekend took place at Capital Music Hall, 200 Rideau Street on November 12, 2005. Dubbed "The XXX Show", the event coincided with the 30th anniversary of the organizing club, the Ottawa Knights.

Murray Lavigne, The Executive Producer, presented the cheque to Jeremy at the club's Monthly Bar Night at Cellblock, 340 Somerset Street West prior to their bar event.

Jeremy was ecstatic with the donation and indicated that our youth will draw big gains from this and other similar donations to the Jeremy Dias Foundation. He also expressed his interest in continuing to work with the Ottawa Knights in support of Jer's Vision.

Mr. Leather Ottawa 2006, Mario Larochelle, will be announcing his charity of choice in the near future. The MLO organizers are busy planning for the upcoming 14th annual Mr. Leather Ottawa 2007 weekend event – "Unkut and Unkaged".

Please watch for updates in the near future.
